

POLICY STATEMENT

New Brunswick Community College (NBCC) recognizes that student relationships formed at college continue past graduation. The NBCC Enrolment Management Department holds the responsibility for leading and directing the engagement with alumni for the advancement of the College.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to outline and clarify the College's provision of a lifelong link for NBCC Alumni with services and benefits including networking, educational events, reunions, and opportunities to connect and engage with alumni.

SCOPE AND LIMITATIONS

This applies to all components and staff of New Brunswick Community College.

1.0 DEFINITIONS

Alumni are defined as individuals who have successfully completed one of the following at NBCC:

- a certificate program
- a graduate certificate
- a diploma program
- a diploma of advanced studies
- a post-graduate diploma
- a certificate of achievement - a certificate issued to a student upon successful completion of a training session in a specific field, which includes a formal evaluation, but which does not lead to a diploma or certificate.
- a digital badge – issued to individuals who have completed one or more microcredentials that culminates in a digital badge.
- an apprenticeship program - progressive on-the-job training as well as technical training at NBCC that culminates in recognized certification.
- the Adult Education & Instructor Development Program - certification issued to instructors and administrators who already possess a certificate or diploma; have satisfied the requirements of a prescribed program profile, and; have accumulated a minimum of 12 credits during the training.
- Management Academy – certification issued to employees who have completed the 35 hours of NBCC Management Academy.

2.0 IMPLEMENTATION

- 2.1 The NBCC Alumni operates within the Enrolment Management Department of NBCC and represents all alumni - past, present, and future. Alumni of NBCC are welcome, and indeed encouraged, to register with NBCC Alumni.
- 2.2 NBCC is the only body that can negotiate and enter into agreements regarding the provision of alumni benefits and services to NBCC Alumni. Formal engagement, as well as the marketing and promotion of NBCC Alumni, is led by and coordinated through the Enrolment Management Department.
- 2.3 Questions and inquiries regarding NBCC Alumni should be directed to the Enrolment Management Department.
